Alder House

COUNTRY DAYS. GOOD COMPANY.

MUDGEE / NEW SOUTH WALES

THE COTTAGE EDITION

A little further from the everyday.

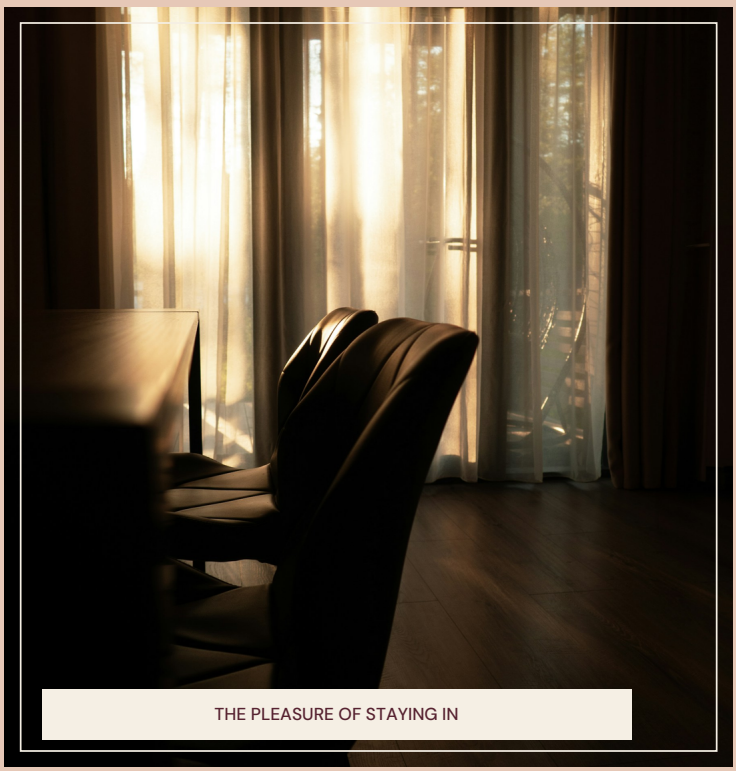

Leave room for the unplanned: coffee in the garden, a long lunch in wine country and an evening that belongs entirely to you.

FIELD NOTES / MUDGEE HILLS

Your Mudgee chapter

An imagined stay. A very real sense of place.

Rooms with a little soul.

THE PLEASURE OF STAYING IN

LINEN, LIGHT & SLOW MORNINGS

Stay in. Settle down.

Alder House imagines country comfort with a collected feel: warm timber, soft linen, books within reach and a table that invites you to linger.

INTERIOR PHOTOGRAPHY / DESIGN INSPIRATION

A FEW THOUGHTFUL DETAILS

Before you arrive

Save the host's access and parking notes before you travel.

Once you are here

Keep Wi-Fi, house notes and your host contact close at hand.

At the Mudgee table.

Make an afternoon of it

Good bread. Something local in the glass. No reason to rush the last mouthful.

THE LOCAL LIST

01 Althea by Zin

Begin on Church Street with coffee, bread and pastries. Pick up a little extra for tomorrow morning.

02 Lowe Family Wine Co

Book a cellar door tasting, then linger over a grazing hamper at Tinja Farm. Arrange a driver if you plan to taste.

Something for later

A loaf, a local bottle, a table for two.

MENUS & BOOKINGS / CHECK WITH EACH VENUE

Mudgee,

at your pace.

OPEN SKIES / QUIET ROADS / GOOD COMPANY

A few good hours

A LITTLE INSPIRATION, NOT A STRICT ITINERARY

01 Follow the river

Take a picnic to Lawson Park and find a spot beside the Cudgegong River. Leave the afternoon open.

02 Head into wine country

Choose a cellar door, book ahead and allow time to hear the stories behind the bottle.

03 Bring the region home

Pick up local produce, settle around the table and let dinner become the evening's only plan.

MUDGEE / COUNTRY LIFE

Take the long way

The good kind of going home.

A LITTLE COUNTRY TO CARRY WITH YOU

TEXTURES OF COUNTRY

Before you close the gate.

One last coffee. A look around.
A promise to return.

Leave nothing but good memories

Check drawers, chargers and the fridge.

A little care goes a long way

Follow your host's notes for dishes and rubbish.

Until the next country weekend

Return keys and lock up as your host requests.
